

Misleading Voter Mailings from the Voter Participation Center

The St. Lucie County Supervisor of Elections Office is not responsible for potentially misleading mailings that were sent to voters in St. Lucie County by groups such as the Voter Participation Center or The Center for Voter Information.

Recent news articles have stated that these organizations have used outdated and incorrect data to mail pre-filled Florida Voter Registration Applications to voters who are already registered, minors, pets and even deceased family members.

These organizations are not affiliated with the St. Lucie County Supervisor of Elections office. The erroneous information did not come from the St Lucie County Supervisor of Elections office.

If you wish to be removed from the Voter Participation Center mailing list, please call their toll-free number at 877-255-6750 as listed on the bottom of the mailings sent.
