

CANVASSING BOARD

The County Canvassing board is composed of the Supervisor of Elections, a county court judge, who shall act as chair, and a county commission member. Two alternate members (a county court judge and a county commission member) are also appointed. The County Canvassing board shall meet at the Supervisor of Elections office to publicly canvass the absentee elector's ballots and provisional ballots.

If any member of the county canvassing board is unable to serve, is a candidate who has opposition in the election being canvassed, or is an active participant in the campaign or candidacy of any candidate who has opposition in the election being canvassed, such member shall be replaced pursuant to Florida Statute 102.141.

The canvassing board conducts all business at the Supervisor of Elections office. Public notice of the dates and times of all meetings will be posted on our website.
